My Spirit is Soaring by Sandy Goodkin

“I am writing this book because there is a spiritual vacuum in too many good people who become discouraged with daily news, or illness, or "failure." We all need inspiration and perspective in our daily lives so that our spirit is re-discovered and we can learn how to make it soar! I want it to be a gift from others, a give-away book that allows friends to share their feelings.” —Sandy Goodkin
